Aflame (Fall Away #4) Penelope Douglas. Aflame (Fall Away #4) "Jared Trent," I scolded, "if I get into trouble for the first time in my life, three weeks before I graduate high school, I'm telling my father it was your fault." I nearly jogged behind him as he pulled me along down the darkened school corridor, the music from the dance like a subterranean hum around us.

This book was a perfect ending to the Fall Away series. Penelope was very clever to shatter Jared and Tate's relationship to give something else to get our teeth stuck into and a way to patch things up for good, tie up loose ends and finalise the world and characters she created. I thoroughly enjoyed it.
