There are over 2000 registered historic buildings in Shanghai, with hundreds more waiting to be added. Most are pre-War structures and are either Western buildings, or Chinese-style buildings with a distinct Western influence. These include villas, offices, apartment buildings and shikumen (a house of both wood and brick). Structures were selected for this book because of the interesting stories behind them or because they were related to a topical news event.

Carbohydrates give the body energy. They are in many foods people eat each day. But some carbohydrates are healthier than others. A uniquely informed investigative account of one of the biggest financial crises of President Obama's early administration During his first year in office, President Obama faced the possibility of more than a million lost jobs as GM and Chrysler headed for financial ruin. He joined forces with Treasury Secretary Tim Geithner and economic advisor Larry Summers in a historic government intervention to keep these two auto-industry giants afloat, working against a ticking clock and fielding vocal opposition from free market champions along the way. It's from this vantage point that former New York Times financial journalist Steven Rattner witnesses a new administration's grace under pressure in the face of gross corporate mismanagement—a scenario rich in hard-earned lessons for managers and executives in any industry.

The first major book on Japanese textile artist Itchiku Kubota, published to accompany a touring exhibition.
