The filmic quality is so apparent that it's surprising Delson bothered with the book format at all - Maynard and Jennica has already been optioned by the producer Scott Rudin, of The Truman Show and The Queen fame. With the cutesy gift of a Maine coon cat to launch the couple's romance, plenty of nauseating dialogue regarding the naming of the animal and subsequent descriptions of how pleasant it is to be in a relationship, it has all the ingredients of a successful romcom.
