Ninguém desonra um tuareg. Homens duros, orgulhosos, só estes guerreiros do deserto conseguem sobreviver no Saara infernal, uma das regiões mais áridas da Terra. Ao contar a história do tuareg Gacel Sayad, Figueroa mergulha no estranho e fascinante mundo dos guerreiros do deserto. Um mundo milenar e misterioso onde homens altivos, orgulhosos, com uma cultura antiquíssima, cultivam sua obsessão pelo isolamento, ignorando a civilização que começa depois das dunas. 'Tuareg' é sobretudo a epopéia de um verdadeiro guerreiro tuareg, que, solitário, faz com que se cumpra a lei do deserto, que condena à morte todos aqueles que infringem o seu milenar e inflexível código de honra.

On the island of Fuerteventura, the Germans have built a house of 'rest' that offers all kinds of pleasure to their submarine officers after hard months in the deep sea. The British secret service to infiltrate Erika Simon, German Jewish exile in England, in the group of prostitutes who enliven the leisure hours of the Germans. Its mission is to gather as much information as possible about the movement of the dreaded submarines. Your risk, involve your heart in an unexpected relationship. His dilemma, trapped in a terrifying crossroads: betray your allies or betray her lover ...

Why the wind, and energy it produces, should not be private property The energy transition has begun. To succeed—to replace fossil fuels with wind and solar power—that process must be fair.

Otherwise, mounting popular protest against wind farms will prolong carbon pollution and deepen the climate crisis. David McDermott Hughes examines that anti-industrial, anti-corporate resistance, drawing on his time spent conducting field research in a Spanish village surrounded by wind turbines. In the lives of a community freighted with centuries of exploitation—people whom the author comes to know intimately—clean power and social justice fit together only awkwardly. A green economy will require greater efforts to get ordinary people such as these on board. Aesthetics, livelihood, property, and, most essentially, the private nature of wind resources—all these topics must be examined with fresh eyes.

The Tuaregs are the true sons of the desert. They can survive in the harshest of conditions like nobody else. The noble inmouchar Gacel Sayah, is the master of a large extension of the desert. One day, two fugitives arrive from the north and Gacel, following his ancient and sacred hospitality laws, gives them shelter. However, Gacel doesn't realise that his act of kindness will lead him towards a deadly adventure.

The board members of US company Dall & Houston receive a death threat from an alleged Islamic terrorist called Aarohum Al Rashid: unless they return the one billion dollars that they reaped from their direct involvement in the Iraq war, they will be killed off one by one. The plot addresses current global issues like the war for the control of coltan supplies, a mineral so valuable that it has become essential to new technology in the developed world. A great novel, charged with action, intrigue and first-class story telling.

Alberto Vzquez-Figueroa, the acclaimed popular novelist, has given us in Ebano a novel in his own tremendously realistic and almost cinematographic style. This time his novel is set in Africa, the main characters being a young European lecturer and his wife, an ebullient and idealistic black African who tries to bring to the attention of the Western world the miserable plight of her home country. While on honeymoon in Africa, she is abducted during one of her husband's absences. So begins the young man's odyssey to find his wife who, suffering great hardship, is taken to Arabia—to be sold to a sheik for a large sum of money.
