Hey all, I've got a 1993 DT25C. I've got the factory service manual coming as a christmas present, but I'm hoping y'all can give me some help before that arrives as it is duck season here in Arkansas. I bought the outboard used. Fresh full rebuild. New rings, pistons, bearings, full machine work, etc. It has maybe 15 hours on it.

The Englishwoman's Review, which published from 1866 to 1910, participated in and recorded a great change in the range of possibilities open to women. The ideal of the magazine was the idea of the emerging emancipated middle-class woman: economic independence from men, choice of occupation, participation in the male enterprises of commerce and government, access to higher education, admittance to the male professions, particularly medicine, and, of course, the power of suffrage equal to that of men. First published in 1979, this thirty-first volume contains issues from 1899. With an informative introduction by Janet Horowitz Murray and Myra Stark, and an index compiled by Anna Clark, this set is an invaluable resource to those studying nineteenth and early twentieth-century feminism and the women's movement in Britain.

More and more sailors and powerboaters are buying and relying on electronic and electric devices aboard their boats, but few are aware of proper installation procedures or how to safely troubleshoot these devices if they go on the blink.

Never Far Away is a short story and resource for the parent who has a child that doesn't like to separate from them when time for school or work. It has illustrative pictures and content for the parent and child to interact before they go about their day.
